Sex Trafficking is:

The Recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision, or obtaining of a person for the purpose of a commercial sex act where such an act is induced by force, fraud, or coercion. Under U.S. federal law: any minor under the age of 18 years induced into commercial sex is a victim of sex trafficking—regardless of whether or not the trafficker used force, fraud, or coercion.

Youth with a combination of indicators in each circle below may have been trafficked:

Call it sex trafficking, call it survival sex, call it The Life. By any name, you have the strength to leave it behind. Let us be by your side.

Common Thread provides:

- A personal advocate immediately dispatched to come meet with you at the time of referral.
- In-person support to help you through interviews, appointments, finding services, and taking control of your own path.
- Continuous, long-term, non-judgmental support, even if your journey has some twists and turns along the way.

You don't have to do this alone.
